

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Moonlight concert at Makee Isl. and this evening.

The Commissioners of Education will meet at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Senator and Mrs. W. H. Rice and Miss Rice left for Kauai last evening.

Matinee at the Horse Show this afternoon. Evening performance as usual.

The Mounted Reserve meets this evening for drill on the Makiki ball grounds.

Hay Wodehouse has gone to Maui to spend a few days with the Von Tempys.

The Board of Health has two weeks' business on hand for this afternoon's meeting.

W. W. Hall will forward through the American Board all contributions to the Indian famine relief fund.

The usual band concert will be given at the Executive building this afternoon at 4:30, and the ladies will play tennis across the street.

George Waterhouse, Harry Mist and Dr. Nichols have been elected delegates to the Hawaiian Tennis Association from the Valley Tennis Club.

Mr. Adams was the only passenger for Honolulu in the S. S. Mount Lebanon. L. Kady and C. A. Burbank, two young men, are going to the Orient.

James Campbell has deeded to the Minister of the Interior certain strips of land needed for widening Fort and Queen streets for the consideration of $2096.

Editor Porter, the new President's new secretary, is described as a tall and graceful man, with a winning smile and a hearty laugh. He is witty, friendly and generous.

Hon. J. A. Cummins is entertaining his many friends at his hospitable home today, the occasion being his birthday. The Hawaiian National Band has been engaged for the day.

McKinley will be the third Methodist President of the United States. Of the others eight have been Episcopalians, six Presbyterians, two Unitarians, one "Christian" and one Freethinker.

At the Honolulu Iron Works this morning, fire was started under the big tank for cooking asphaltum. The work of dipping pipe will commence this afternoon as soon as the asphaltum is sufficiently cooked.

The Japanese at the Quarantine station are not in quarantine. They are in custody of the Marshal pending the decision of the Supreme Court and merely kept at the station for convenience and economy.

The Princess Louise, Marchioness of Lorne, objects to her portraits being sold or reproduced. A beautiful photograph of her was peremptorily withdrawn from circulation some years ago.

There was a moderate turnout of members of Co. B last night, and a good drill was had. Many new men are being taken into the company. Privates Ewing, Farmer and Cummins have been promoted to the rank of corporal.

With a large lot of goods just received by the Australia and Amy Turner, the Pacific Hardware Co. have another invoice of the favorite Universal Stoves and Ranges. Some sizes were sold as soon as set up, but another supply has been ordered.

The largest heathen temple in the world is in Seringsapatam, and it comprises a square, each side being one mile in length, inside of which are six other squares. The walls are 25 feet high and 5 feet thick, and the hall where pilgrims congregate is supported by 1000 pillars, each cut from a single block of stone.

Money-back

are good, of course, if they are really money-back.

Ask your grocer for Schulz's Best.

There was another big crowd at Bristol's Horse Show last night.

Julius Hoting offers a reward of $25 for detection of the shooter of fancy pigeons belonging to his son Carl.

King Bros. have just received a new lot of tissue paper, window poles, sash rods, artists' materials, picture frames, etc.

E. R. Hendry has been elected secretary of Harmony Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., to fill the vacancy caused by G. A. Turner's removal to Hilo.

George Martin, one of the "cracks" of the local wheelmen, expects to receive a new Tribune '97 racer from the Coast by the next Australia.

The Supreme Court decision in the Japanese cases seems to meet with general approval, but there are some who insist that the Japs will never be deported.

The Pacific Hardware Company has one of its windows filled with specimens of clay modeling, the handiwork of a class at the Kamehameha Girls' School taught by Sarah L. Newcomb.

The telephone company has a force of men at work on Merchant street stringing a heavy cable on the tall poles recently put up. Each cable contains 104 wires and is itself supported by a steel wire.

WARNING TO BICYCLISTS.

One Parent Who Thinks Pedestrians Have Some Rights.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Yesterday morning as my daughter was leaving a car opposite the Wall residence on Beretania street she was run into by a bicycle ridden by a young lady attending school at Punahou, who was making fast time.

The collision was within a hairbreadth of being a violent one—which would undoubtedly have had serious results—as it was, my girl was slightly hurt in the hand and her books were thrown into the street.

The young "lady" did not have the decency to turn back to ascertain the damage she had caused, and this is what is most exasperating.

People using bicycles or other vehicles on the public roads should remember that pedestrians have their rights.

I desire to publish this protest as a warning to people who imagine that the public thoroughfares are their own private property, but who may find themselves landed at the police station some fine day and names and circumstances figure in the public prints.

A PARENT.

Another thanatopsis.

The following is from the Rochester, N. Y., Times:

John Howard Bryant, an only surviving brother of William Cullen Bryant, aged about ninety years, resides in Princeton, Ill. He is unknown to fame, but not for want of native ability which, judging from the following freshly written gem, might have made him as illustrious as his brother. The lines are entitled, 'Close to Ninety,' and were evoked by the action of a Bellefontaine, Ohio, Bryant literary society in making him an honorary member:

Here now I stand, upon life's outer verge,
Close at my feet an ocean wide and deep,
Dark, sullen, silent, and without a surge,
Where earth's past myriads lie in dreamless sleep.

'Tis here I stand without a thrill of fear,
In loneliness allied to the sublime;
The broken links of love that bound me here,
Lie shattered on this treacherous shoal of time.

But still I cling to friends who yet remain,
Oling to the glorious scenes that round me lie,
Striving to stay the haste of years in vain

As swifter yet the winged moments fly.

Idly, I seek the future to explore,
I partly know what is, but naught that is before.

A rare good bargain was the buying of a hundred dozen shirt waists. And you share the benefits. Shirt waists of newest patterns in colorings and cut go to you at a dollar. Some at $1.75; beauties at $1.25. The lot is almost gone, some of the prettiest will not last the week out.

A new stock of ladies and mens hose and half hose at half price. Cricketers flannel, just what is wanted by men who try with the wickets, at low prices. Outing flannels for ladies, in beautiful shades.

Such linen duck bargains were never heard of in Honolulu. It's the result of stock taking—maybe over-buying has something to do with it—whichever it is you are the winner. Summer dress goods, new importations, were never prettier than now. The weaver seems to know as much as the designer these days, and he puts them together so they wear. This applies to Dimities, Organdies and Muslins. These are in fancies; the plains are as serviceable.

A whole department of Corsets gives you the chance you've waited for. Prima Donna, P. D., R. & G. and ventilated. The price is right. Navy Blue and Black rain proof cloth is serviceable for wraps at this season.

Stock taking affects Turkish Towel prices the same as every thing else. This is customers' week in profit sharing.
